

Staff Bio

Kelly Carlstein | Director of Strategic Marketing and PR

Kelly directs Gulf Coast Community Foundation's marketing and public relations strategies. As part of Gulf Coast's marketing and communications team, she leads digital and traditional marketing strategies and innovative story telling in partnership with donors and community partners. She is a member of GCLI class of 2018. Prior to joining Gulf Coast she worked in marketing and public relations for the private club industry and most recently healthcare. Kelly enjoys spending her time outdoors with her husband and baby boy.